You're invited!

In response to the alarming rise in anti-Asian racism, the Act2EndRacism Network has produced five short videos, seeking to counter disinformation and misinformation that has fueled anti-Asian sentiment. Join us as we host a panel discussion with a special focus on two of our Let's Talk videos "Yellow Peril" and "Model Minority".

Moderated by Teresa Woo-Paw, the founder of Action, Chinese Canadians Together (ACCT), let's have a conversation about how anti-Asian racism has manifested in our systems, how resilient the Asian community has been and how we can find ways to resolve anti-Asian sentiments.

Panelists

Dep. Minister Daniel Quan-Watson
Government of Canada
Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs

Honourable Bardish Chagger
Minister of Diversity and Inclusion and Youth

Marie-Claude Landry
Chief Commissioner of the Canadian Human Rights Commission

Dr. Gina Wong
Founder and Ambassador of the Asian Gold Ribbon campaign

This event will also be held in conjunction with the launch of the inaugural Asian Gold Ribbon day, an initiative by Dr. Gina Wong and Sheila Wong.

The Asian Gold Ribbon 2021 Campaign urges individuals, organizations, and communities to demonstrate solidarity against Asian racism and to recognize its profound psychological impact. Asian and non-Asian persons will adorn face masks with the gold ribbon emblem and gold ribbon pins throughout the month of May to signify hope, unity, and solidarity for a better tomorrow. East Asian Youth Summit 3 to 5 p.m. MST by Asian Gold Ribbon

Following the webinar, join Dr. Gina Wong and Teresa Woo-Paw at the East Asian Youth Summit 3:30-5 p.m. MST, presented by Asian Gold Ribbon.

The Inaugural Youth Summit will include a panel discussion with youth ambassadors across Canada as they share their personal experiences of anti-Asian racism and the impact on their lives. Learn more here.
